

SAMPLE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

40 Verses to Ignite Your Faith
Surprising Insights from Unexpected Passages
by Laurie Polich Short

1. How did you develop an affinity for exploring obscure passages of Scripture?
2. What was the catalyst moment that propelled you down the path of writing this book?
3. We're an impatient people living in a society filled with endless opportunities for instant gratification. What can we learn from Abraham and Sarah about the dangers of moving ahead of God's timing? (Genesis 16:2).
4. Many of us are anxious about the things we need today, let alone the things we're going to need tomorrow. What can maggots and manna teach us about holding things loosely and experiencing God's provision every single day? (Exodus 16:9).
5. God went to great lengths to get Jonah's attention. How does his experience in the belly of a big fish and beyond show us that God is truly a God of second chances? (Jonah 1:5).
6. In the book of John, we read that Jesus wept at the death of Lazarus. How does Jesus's emotion help us understand that God is near, even in our deepest and darkest moments of suffering? (John 11:35).
7. Throughout our lives we're going to encounter people that we feel incapable of loving. How are these difficult moments opportunities for us to reach out in love and make the invisible God visible? (1 John 4:12).
8. I understand that you've partnered with RightNowMedia for an eight-week video series correlated to the book. Tell us about that and how churches can use it to bring the message of 40 Verses to Ignite Your Faith to their small groups and Bible studies.
9. Where can the listeners/viewers go online to connect with you and find out more?
