

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Regina Jennings Is a Rising Voice in Humorous Historical Romance

- “[Jennings is] a fresh voice in Christian historical romance. . . .”
—Library Journal
- Jennings’s combination of wit and romance appeals to fans of Deeanne Gist, Karen Witemeyer, and Mary Connealy
- Buying a business sight unseen leads to hilarious complications in this humorous historical

After helping her grandfather at their Boston auction house, Miranda Wimplegate discovers she’s accidentally sold a powerful family’s prized portrait to an anonymous bidder. Desperate to appease the furious family, her grandfather tracks it to the Missouri Ozarks and makes an outlandish offer to buy the local auction house if they promise not to sell anything until he arrives.

Upon their arrival, however, they discover their new business doesn’t deal in fine antiques, but in livestock. And its manager, ruggedly handsome Wyatt Ballentine, is frustrated to discover his fussy new bosses don’t know a thing about the business he’s single-handedly kept afloat. Faced with more cattle than they can count—but no mysterious painting—Miranda and Wyatt form an unlikely but charged partnership to try and salvage a bad situation getting worse.
