1. What led you to become a pastor?
2. This book is based around a miraculous true story of a teenaged boy who drowned but came back to life. You are closely connected to this story. Tell us what you witnessed.
3. What does it mean to position yourself for a miracle?
4. Share some of the things in our lives that often prevent us from witnessing a miracle.
5. Before God performs a miracle, He sometimes makes us wait. Talk about that waiting season. What should we be doing in that season to protect our hearts?
6. When Joyce Smith was waiting and praying for God to heal her son, the two of you decided to send away anyone who expressed doubt at God's healing power. Tell us about that.
7. How can we cultivate strong faith, faith that knows God can and will heal?
8. You share some incredible stories of modern-day miracles in the book. Tell us a few of them.
9. What happens when our miracle doesn't materialize?
10. What is your hope for those who read this book, and for those who watch the brand-new Breakthrough movie, based on John Smith's story?
