Intriguing Glimpse into the Past by Bestselling Historical Author Judith Miller

- Miller’s eye for historical detail shines in this novel about the chapel cars, a unique facet of early twentieth-century American history
- “A well-constructed plot and believable characters . . . a must-read.”
—Library Journal starred review of The Brickmaker’s Bride
- CBA historical romance fans will enjoy this gentle love story playing out amid a West Virginia setting brought to life

With her penchant for seeing the best in everyone, Hope Irvine sees a world full of good people in hard places. When her father accepts a position traveling in a chapel car as an on-the-rail missionary, she is determined to join him in his efforts and put her musical skills to good use by serving the mining families of West Virginia, saving their souls, and bettering their lives.

Luke Hughes shares Hope’s love of music and her love of God, but as a poor miner he knows he can offer her no future. Still, the notes she sings resonate in his heart. When she begins to travel with a young mine manager to neighboring counties, Luke can hardly suppress his jealousy. It isn’t until he begins to suspect these missions of mercy might be the mine manager’s cover for illegal purposes, though, that Luke feels justified in speaking up. But how can he discover the truth without hurting Hope or, worse, putting her in danger?

“Miller’s fans will enjoy this romp following the traveling chapels of yesteryear.”
