An Invitation to Learn Courage from the Women in Scripture

Courageous Women of the Bible Leaving Behind Fear and Insecurity for a Life of Confidence and Freedom

by LaTan Roland Murphy

Learn to live, love, and lead courageously—as you boldly choose to trust God.

Whether you're facing struggles with singleness, the mounting challenges of marriage and motherhood, health issues, a financial crisis—God has equipped you to walk in freedom and confidence as you abide in Him, strengthened by His power and provision. Through the stories of eleven brave women of the Bible who made faith-filled choices that positioned them for success, LaTan Roland Murphy exhorts, encourages, and empowers women of all ages. With warmth and wit, she illustrates how you, like Deborah, Jael, Mary, and others, can look beyond your circumstances and lay hold of the courage needed to

- draw closer to Jesus when facing illness, isolation, or rejection;
- live and give generously, even amid financial hardship; and
- step out into faithful, fearless living as a wife, mother, friend, or co-worker—no matter the season of life or what lies ahead.

Thought-provoking study questions and an interactive journaling section will help take you even deeper in your quest for a more courageous, confident life, either on your own or with a group.
