1. You have more than 30 years of experience working in business and are the founder of PACEsetters. Tell us more about your background and how you became a Christian.
2. You've experienced a miraculous face-to-face encounter with Jesus, meeting Him at the point of death. Do you recall your first thoughts when seeing Jesus in heaven?
3. Describe the senses you experienced during your time with Jesus.
4. Since your near-death experience, have you struggled at all to share this story? How have people reacted to your story?
5. What trials did you face after your NDE? Did you expect to face more trials, or did you believe that the worst was behind you?
6. How did your NDE change your outlook on life?
7. In your book, you say, "Friends, be careful what you pray for." Why do you have this reminder?
8. You write about your own battle with depression and of your experiences with other people who have suffered. Some have died. How has your insight affected your ability to confront your depression and your ability to relate with others who suffer?
9. Power and purpose are two facets of life that you talk about frequently. Why are these two qualities so important?
10. What message of hope can you give to people who pick up your book out of fear of dying or in the midst of bereavement?
11. Where can our audience go to connect with you and buy a copy of Dying to Meet Jesus?
