"All hail Queen Pippa!"

"Hooray, Pippa!"

"Yay, Pippa!"

"You're amazing, Pippa!"

Every year for her birthday, Pippa wanted more than just a party. She wanted a “Hooray for Pippa” parade. Pippa loved attention. It was like being in a spotlight.

Normally, after her birthday parade, Pippa went home and filled her belly with all the pupsicles and pupcakes her doggie heart desired.

On her fifth birthday, however, Pippa's human parents walked into the room with a gigantic, perfectly wrapped package.

"Pippa, we have a surprise for you."

Pippa bounded around, imagining a new crown for next year's birthday parade, a new tutu for her dance recital, or a sequined collar. But as Pippa tore into the gigantic, perfectly wrapped package, she realized there was one very small, very plain package inside.

“Pippa, this present will change everything for you.”
Sadly, Pippa eyed a small, yellow T-shirt with the words BIG SISTER on it.

For the next few months, as Pippa's mom's tummy grew bigger, Pippa's time in the spotlight grew smaller.
