Falling for You

A BRADFORD SISTERS ROMANCE

by Becky Wade

Minneapolis, MN—In May, award-winning and bestselling contemporary romance author Becky Wade releases her new novel, Falling for You. This is the second BRADFORD SISTERS ROMANCE, following the #1 CBA: Romance list bestseller True to You.

Becky Wade began her career writing romance for the general market. She took a break from writing after becoming a mom, but then, in Wade’s own words, “God began to nudge me to write again. Still romances, but romances written for Him and for the Christian market. I started fleshing out a story idea. Then eventually, I carved out the time to sit down in front of my computer. Slowly but surely, I wrote My Stubborn Heart.” Since her Christian fiction debut, Wade has won nearly every prominent inspirational award for her writing and regularly hits bestseller lists. She writes unique stories for the inspirational market—real-life contemporary romances featuring successful young women, witty banter, and inspiring faith stories. She achieves the emotional depth of writers like Irene Hannon and Debbie Macomber in a fresh way.

Her new novel, Falling for You, is a second-chance romance with a mystery element involving a missing persons case. Readers looking for clean contemporary romance can’t ask for a better recommendation than Becky Wade.

Willow Bradford is content taking a break from modeling to run her family’s inn until she comes face-to-face with NFL quarterback Corbin Stewart, the man who broke her heart—and wants to win her back. When a decades-old family mystery brings them together, they’re forced to decide whether they can risk falling for one another all over again.
