Stirring and Dramatic Historical Romance from an Award-Winning Author

- “Wonderfully detailed . . . deliciously thrilling . . . timelessly moving.”
—Booklist on High as the Heavens
- Breslin effortlessly balances drama and romance while skillfully bringing the intrigue of WWI to life
- “Breslin’s latest has non-stop action and intrigue set in the fascinating time period of World War I.”—RT Book Reviews Top Pick review of High as the Heavens

In spring 1918, Lieutenant Colin Mabry, a British soldier working with MI8 after suffering injuries on the front, receives a message by carrier pigeon. It is from Jewel Reyer, the woman he once loved and who saved his life—a woman he believed to be dead. Traveling to France to answer her urgent summons, he desperately hopes this mission will ease his guilt and restore the courage he lost on the battlefield.

Colin is stunned, however, to discover the message came from Jewel’s half sister, Johanna. Johanna, who works at a dovecote for French Army Intelligence, found Jewel’s diary and believes her sister is alive in the custody of a German agent. With spies everywhere, Colin is skeptical of Johanna, but as they travel across France and Spain, a tentative trust begins to grow between them.

When their pursuit leads them straight into the midst of a treacherous plot, danger and deception turn their search for answers into a battle for their lives.

“Blending spycraft with a story of romance forged under the pressure of a life-or-death rescue mission, this action-packed historical will appeal to fans of historical thrillers and will keep readers guessing until the final moments.”
