1. Get Well Soon is your third health-themed book in the body, mind and spirit category. Talk to us about the personal health crisis that got you interested in exploring natural and supernatural remedies for vibrant health.
2. In the three-plus years since the release of your book The 30-Day Faith Detox, you've aggressively pursued additional education and added a bit of alphabet soup after your last name. How did that education shape your vision for Get Well Soon?
3. Why does the journey toward vibrant health need to begin with a conscious decision about how well we actually want to be?
4. You make a distinction between natural and supernatural healing. Why do we need to pursue both/and rather than either/or?
5. Why do you ask readers to take an inventory of their health?
6. What are some of the lies and deceptions that get in the way of people making progress toward vibrant health?
7. What is your vision for this book and all of the people who will read it?
8. You cover a wide range of body systems and illnesses throughout the book. Walk us through a few of your favorite chapters and how a reader can practically put to use what you share.
9. You are two seasons into your TV show theTHREE. Tell us some of the ways God is using your show to bring your body, mind and spirit message across the globe.
10. You have an intriguing supernatural story about your trademarked Quiet Brain product line. Tell us how that all got started and some of the amazing successes people have had with those products.
11. Where can people go online to connect with you and find out more?
