The glory of God—His splendor and power—is irresistible. It is a joy to be able to draw close to Him in fellowship. And it is our unbelievable privilege to share His glorious presence with a hurting world.

In these pages, author and international speaker Jennifer Eivaz explains that you are called to make His presence known to those around you—to be an actual carrier of God’s glory.

Here is the inspiration you need to

• enter into intimate fellowship with the Spirit of God
• experience healing and deliverance
• pray for miracles that will change others’ lives

As you develop a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit, you will become a host for God’s presence in the darkest places. Step into the supernatural—and become a glory carrier.

“Jennifer describes in plain language aspects of the spiritual realm that are often misunderstood or considered out of reach for the ordinary person, and she passionately challenges each of us to become glory carriers.”

—Banning Liebscher, founder and pastor, Jesus Culture
