SAMPLE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

The Happy Crab by Layla Palmer and Kevin Palmer

1. Your new children's book, The Happy Crab, is based on a true story. Can you tell us a short version of the story and why you turned that story into a book?
2. Tell us more about your son, Steevenson.
3. What advice would you share with couples considering adoption?
4. Guy Wolek's illustrations in the book are filled with fun and friendly looking animals, including a stingray in a baseball cap and pelicans eating ice cream. What did you think when you first saw the art for the book?
5. How did Steevenson react to seeing the book in print for the first time?
6. If a parent, grandparent, or guardian listening today asked you about what you'd want the child in their life to take away from the book, what would you tell them?
7. How would you encourage other parents to teach their kids these positive, Christian values?
8. What are some habits that parents can put into their daily routines to teach their children kindness? What about teachers looking to instill kindness in their classrooms?
9. Layla, you've been a blogger at The Lettered Cottage for over thirteen years. Tell us more about your blog and your writing career.
10. Kevin, as a songwriter for nearly 20 years, you've sold over a million albums worldwide. How has that journey impacted you? Did you ever think you'd write a children's book?
11. Where can our listeners connect with you and get their copy of The Happy Crab?
