Much Loved Lawana Blackwell Delivers Another Charming Victorian Era Tale

- Author of acclaimed GRESHAM CHRONICLES series, with more than 400,000 copies sold
- “Wonderful storyline and characters, and Gresham is so beautifully painted that it is almost a character in itself.” —Deborah Raney, author of THE CHICORY INN novels.
- “One would almost believe Ms. Blackwell somehow experienced [the Victorian] era first-hand. Well done!” —Romantic Times (about The Maiden of Mayfair)

In difficult circumstances, Charlotte Ward, once a famed stage actress, tries to restart her career only to experience disaster. Against her better judgment, her estranged daughter, Rosalind, comes to her mother’s rescue and moves her to a quiet English coastal village.

Charlotte is grateful to get to know Rosalind after years apart. As one who has regrets about her own romantic past, it’s a joy for Charlotte to see love blossom for her daughter. For Rosalind, however, it’s time away from teaching and now she must care for the mother who wasn’t there for her. And what could be more complicated than romance?

Together, mother and daughter discover that healing is best accomplished when they focus less on themselves and more on the needs of others.

“Subtly smart wit and gentle wisdom grace each chapter in this long-anticipated novel from beloved author Blackwell... Well worth the wait, this story—the characters, the setting, the dialogue—reminds us why Blackwell’s voice was so deservedly missed.”
