1. Shannon, you've been working on the "Home Made Lovely" blog for years. Tell us more about how you got started blogging and what sparked your interest in interior design and decorating.
2. What are some of the more common misconceptions women have about decorating? Why do so many people think they can't do it?
3. One of the most overwhelming parts of designing a home is really just starting! How do you recommend taking the first step?
4. A huge part of your message is creating a space that is welcoming to others. What are some practical things you do to make sure guests feel welcome in your home?
5. Your faith also plays an important role throughout your home and in this book. How do you think about glorifying Christ when decorating?
6. How can we use our homes to help spread the Gospel?
7. What is your prayer for the women who will read this book?
8. A few more practical questions. What are some of the staples you use in your home to bring a room together or to add a special touch of care to a room?
9. What should readers do when they just can't figure a room out, or they feel like quitting?
10. Where can our audience go to connect with you and purchase a copy of Home Made Lovely?
