1. Sarah, tell us what prompted you to write this book.
2. You open the book with a story of a trip you took to Cambodia. Share what happened and how that connects to the message of walking in step with the Spirit.
3. We have many false ideas about who the Holy Spirit is. Tell us who He is, and what His role is in the life of a follower of Jesus.
4. How does the Holy Spirit lead us through an everyday challenge? Tell us a story from your own life.
5. You've learned some lessons from walking with the Spirit. Tell us about each of these.
  - a. Ask for discernment
  - b. Be flexible
  - c. View adversity as an opportunity
6. You say that the foundation of a radical life is being filled with the Spirit. Take a minute and explain what that means, for those who may not know.
7. How can we pray for the Holy Spirit to influence our family?
8. There are times in our lives when we become "out of step" with God and what He's doing. Tell us some of the distractions—you call them "land mines"—that come across our paths and how to prevent them from derailing us.
9. How could a person use this book for a small group?
10. God can do amazing things through His people when we stay in step with His Spirit! Tell us how the Holy Spirit led you to start your ministry Saving Moses. How is it bringing hope and love to babies and toddlers around the world?
11. Where can people go to learn more about you and your ministry?
