1. Brian, tell us about your upbringing and how Jesus made Himself real to you.
2. God moved on your heart during a conference several years ago. Tell us what He spoke to you about the youth of the nation and how you responded.
3. How did you overcome the fear you felt in response to His call?
4. Talk about how God moved during your first time preaching to a gathering of high school students.
5. Tell us some of the most common issues and struggles this generation is facing.
6. You say that most students want nothing to do with God because deep down, they believe He is mad at them. How can God's love overcome that?
7. Your ministry to young people has been modeled on a practice of simple obedience to God. Talk about why taking that step of faith is so key to the move of the Spirit.
8. How can believers of all ages bring revival to their communities? What steps can they take?
9. God called you to stop preaching for a time and seek Him in prayer instead. Talk about the prayer meetings you led and how the Holy Spirit moved in those in attendance.
10. Many are looking at our world today with fear and despair. What words of strength can you offer them as you spend time with the youth of our nation?
