1. If we take a step back and look at your life trajectory, I bet even you're still surprised at times about where God has planted you. Talk to us about your journey of growing up Baptist, getting a Ph.D. in physics, and the life path you thought you were on.
2. In the opening chapter of the book you tell readers about a life-defining experience you had in China, where you saw the Kingdom of God breaking in like never before. Tell us what happened and how that completely redirected the course of your life.
3. You say that modern thinking about the Gospel focuses on salvation instead of the Kingdom. How do we sometimes blur these two topics?
4. Like a coin, there are two sides to the Kingdom story. On one side we have the individual journey and on the other side we have the stories of societies as a whole. Unpack that for us.
5. Talk to us about the invisible spiritual war that is the backdrop of our day-to-day experiences.
6. In the end we know that God will ultimately have a complete victory, but why does His will not always happen in the midst of our immediate circumstances?
7. What is the active stance God is looking for us to take in the Kingdom confrontation that is happening around us?
8. How can the contemporary example of Steve Jobs and Apple help us understand Jesus' future crashing into our present?
9. What are the "gifts of the Spirit," and what does God want to teach us as we step into them?
10. Why must partnership with the Holy Spirit begin with being filled (and sometimes refilled)?
11. What are the three different categories of manifestations of the Spirit?
12. Talk to us about the process of triune transformation and how God will use it to push us into the fullest expression of our humanity.
13. Over the past decade you've seen a lot of deliverances and healing miracles. Could you share one or two stories that help to illustrate the message of Kingdom Impact?
14. When readers get to the final page of Kingdom Impact, what's the primary message you hope they've heard loud and clear?
15. You were recently featured in Will Hacker and Darren Wilson's new film Finger of God 2. Tell us about that experience.
16. Give us an update on the School of Kingdom Ministry. How has God multiplied those efforts in the past few years?
17. Putty, where can the listeners/viewers go online to connect with you and find out more?
