1. Who did you write The Lifestyle of a Watchman for?

2. Give us the definition of a watchman.

3. Does God call each believer to join Him in intercession? How do we know?

4. You divide the “watchman lifestyle” into three sections: intimate intercession, sacrifice and consecration. Say a few words about each of those.

5. You say that intimate intercession is a two-way street. Where do we see this kind of give-and-take in Scripture?

7. What does it mean to pray in the Spirit?

8. How would you encourage the person who has interceded and sought God’s heart only to have their prayers go unanswered?

9. James, you write that a watchman can discern the still, small voice of God day or night. How can we train ourselves to recognize His voice?

10. There is a lot of chaos in our world, and it seems to be escalating quickly. We have an opportunity to be watchmen here in our own country. Give us a charge as we go about the rest of our day.
