Bestselling and Acclaimed Author Begins a Spellbinding New Series

- Cossette's powerful biblical stories will appeal to readers of Angela Hunt and Francine Rivers
- Well-researched and emotional new series centers on the fascinating Levitical cities of refuge

Seven years ago, Moriyah was taken captive in Jericho and branded with the mark of the Canaanite gods. Now the Israelites are experiencing peace in their new land, but Moriyah has yet to find her own peace. Because of the shameful mark on her face, she hides behind her veil at all times and the disdain of the townspeople keeps her from socializing. And marriage prospects were out of the question . . . until now.

Her father has found someone to marry her, and she hopes to use her love of cooking to impress the man and his motherless sons. But when things go horribly wrong, Moriyah is forced to flee. Seeking safety at one of the newly established Levitical cities of refuge, she is wildly unprepared for the dangers she will face and the enemies—and unexpected allies—she will encounter on her way.

“Cossette delivers a soul-deep, spirit-stirring adventure set amidst the vivid, awe-inspiring beauty of the Promised Land. . . The richness and depth of the storytelling beg readers to savor each chapter while the action-packed plot compels page after page.”
