In a world where everyone lives six feet apart through social distancing, Christians are facing another kind of challenge—spiritual distancing. Often, emotional and physical obstacles stand in the way of drawing nearer to God, and yet, these daily interruptions offer divine opportunities to seek change and close the gap between the Creator and His creation.

Through his new book, Nearer to God, Dr. Wayman Ming Jr., leader of the Pentecostal Church of God, challenges readers to remove hindrances that produce spiritual distance and to pursue God passionately in the power of the Holy Spirit. Each chapter of this book offers detailed questions and prayers for personal and group reflection.

Nearer to God brings answers to readers who want to

- identify and remove barriers that keep them separated from God
- find peace with God in the midst of crisis, loneliness and isolation
- develop spiritual rhythms with the Holy Spirit instead of static religious routine
- nurture a deep intimacy with their Creator and satisfy spiritual hunger
- stir a revival and personal awakening within their spiritual lives

The leader of Pentecostal churches across nearly 70 nations, Dr. Ming uses Scripture and personal experience to share a Spirit-led message that relates to all who seek closeness with Christ.

“All of us are trying to discern God’s voice through the noise of crazy politics, devastating pandemics and various forms of isolation. It is easy for fear, discouragement and hopelessness to be the dominant expressions. Thankfully, Wayman has given us a road map, based on God’s eternal Word, with signposts from our contemporary culture. It’s a map of hope, peace, truth and love.”

“While God’s ‘interruptions’ in our lives often do not make sense to us, He desires that we seek Him in all circumstances: good, bad and ugly. Nearer to God challenges us to see these interruptions as invitations to a closer walk with God.”
