1. In the introduction to your book, you discuss being a new believer and learning how to pray. Tell us about this journey and how you've landed here today.
2. Talk to us about your new ministry at Global Spheres in Corinth, Texas.
3. You travel all over the world sharing God's message with others. Can you share a powerful moment of prayer that led to a defeat over the enemy in your travels?
4. In your book, you suggest that delayed responses to our prayers may be caused by hindrances from the kingdom of darkness. Why is this important for us to consider when we commune with God?
5. Talk to us about how we can identify hindrances to our prayers.
6. How do you suggest we remain courageous while waiting for our prayers to be answered?
7. As an educator of young children, what do you believe that adults can learn from children and should implement into their prayers?
8. For our viewers that are just learning how to pray, what advice can you give them for growing their faith and trusting God's will?
9. If people were to have a single takeaway after reading your book, what would you hope they learn?
10. Where can our viewers go to connect with you and find out more about your book?
