BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Acclaimed Co-Writing Team Returns with Sweeping Alaskan History and Romance

• Book 1 debuted at #1 on the CBA Historical Fiction bestsellers list
• Set in 1926 Alaska, this is a powerful story of faith conquering the darkest of fears

After the death of their father, Collette and Jean-Michel Langelier are no longer tied to post-war France. While his sister dreams of adventure, Jean-Michel is hoping to finally escape reminders of the horrors he faced in the war. When Jean-Michel receives an unexpected invitation for them to visit Alaska and the Curry Hotel, it seems an opportunity for a change he needs.

Katherine Demarchis is a young widow who does not grieve the dangerous husband she was forced to marry. Now she just wants to retreat to a quiet life, content to be alone. First, though, she’s agreed to accompany her grandmother on a final trip, but never expects to see a man from her past.

Katherine and Jean-Michel once shared a deep love that was torn apart by forces beyond their control. Reunited now, have the years changed them too deeply to rediscover what they had? And when Jean-Michel’s nightmares return with terrifying consequences, will faith be enough to heal what’s been broken for so long?

“In their second historical outing, coauthors Peterson and Woodhouse welcome readers back to Alaska’s Curry Hotel, where hearts are mended and souls find peace.”
