New From New York Times Bestselling Author Beverly Lewis

The Photograph by Beverly Lewis

Minneapolis, MN—With over 17 million books sold, Beverly Lewis is a consistent force on CBA and general market bestseller lists. Her most recent book, The Love Letters, appeared on the Publishers Weekly trade paper bestseller list, the USA Today Top 150 list, and reached #1 on the CBA fiction bestseller list.

On September 8, Beverly Lewis released her new novel, The Photograph. In this touching story about the bonds of family, love, and faith, Lewis delivers everything readers look for in Amish fiction.

When her sister Lily disappears only months after their mother's passing, Eva Esch fears she has been wooed away from the People. Yet Lily's disappearance isn't Eva's only concern: She and her sisters must relocate once their older brother takes over the family farmhouse. Where will she go? Does she have any choice but to marry?

Then Jed Stutzman, an Amish buggy maker from Ohio, shows up in Eden Valley with a picture of a Plain young woman. Eva feels powerfully drawn to the charming stranger—but the woman in the forbidden photograph is no stranger at all. . . .

“Eva is a compassionate and responsible soul, while Lily is misguided and looking for love—making the sister duo relatable for most readers. . . .
The characters embark on a moving journey.”
