Rekindle the Altar Fire
Making a Place for God's Presence
 by Chuck D. Pierce and Alemu Beeftu

1. (Chuck) Tell us a little bit about your background in ministry and what you're working on with Global Spheres right now.
2. (Alemu) Will you tell us about your ministry, Gospel of Glory, and how you're training up national and international leaders?
3. Walk us through the historical purpose of an altar as seen in the Old Testament.
4. If we are no longer discussing altars as a place for sacrifice, what might a modern altar look like?
5. In the Old Testament, we often see building an altar as a mandate from the Lord to a person or group of people. God asks this of Noah when the flood subsides, and of the Israelites after they are freed from Egypt. Why do you think we've lost this practice over time?
6. What purpose does our spiritual altar serve today? How does the spiritual altar advance the Kingdom on earth?
7. You mention in Rekindle the Altar Fire that "staying at the altar . . . is dwelling in holy covenant communion with the Living God and living a lifestyle of obedience." Why is understanding the covenant so important for revival?
8. How does the altar connect with our sin? In other words, how should we come by the altar as a means of dealing with our sin?
9. The book shares many ways in which we ruin the altar of God. Will you talk to us about one of the ways we tend to neglect or misuse our altar today?
10. What happens to our prophetic destiny when we neglect our altar?
11. Talk to us about what you're seeing in the nations right now. Where do you see the greatest need to rebuild the altar in our own country?
12. Where can our audience go to connect with you and purchase a copy of Rekindle the Altar Fire?
