

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

A Riveting Edwardian Series Set Among Britain's High Society

- Roseanna White weaves an enthralling tale of mystery, history, and romance in 1912 England
- “The second volume in White’s Edwardian series (after The Lost Heiress) is a solid pick for Downton Abbey fans.” —Library Journal

Lady Rowena Kinnaird may be the heiress to a Highland earldom, but she has never felt good enough—not for her father, not for the man she thought she’d marry, not for God. But after a shocking attack, she’s willing to be forever an outcast if it means escaping Loch Morar.

Brice Myerston, the Duke of Nottingham, has found himself in possession of a rare treasure his enemies are prepared to kill for. While Brice has never been one to shy away from manor-born ladies, the last thing he needs is the distraction of Lady Rowena, who finds herself in a desperate situation. But when Rowena’s father tries to trap Brice into marrying his daughter, Brice makes a surprising decision.

Rowena wanted to escape the Highlands, but she’s reluctant to marry a notorious flirt. And when she learns that Brice is mixed up in questionable business with a stolen treasure, she fears she’s about to end up directly in the path of everything she was trying to avoid.

“The spiritual themes are integral to the characters and plot developments, making this a well-rounded, intriguing, and satisfying story.”
