1. Kim has a unique ministry called Crystal Peaks Youth Ranch. Kim, will you tell us about this ministry and how it all started?
2. How are you seeing the Holy Spirit move in your ministry right now?
3. Your new book Revival Rising is divided into five sections, and each section highlights part of Mark 12:29–31. Talk to us about why you developed a book around these three verses.
4. Throughout Revival Rising you have written beautiful narratives that always include short prayers, revealing your trust in the Holy Spirit. (For example, “Lead me, Holy Spirit.”) How is it that these seemingly small moments of faith lead to big answers and guidance from the Holy Spirit?
5. We’ve seen revival movements over the years and many Christians have experienced personal revival, but where does revival actually start?
6. Once that flame is ignited in our hearts and our hearts are pointed toward Jesus, how do we keep the fire burning long-term?
7. What can you say to the Christian who thinks “revival just isn’t for me” or “revival doesn’t begin with me?”
8. Your book has a chapter dedicated to reigniting our testimonies. Talk to us about the power of testimony.
9. What is your prayer for those who pick up this book?
10. Where can our audience go to connect with you and purchase a copy of Revival Rising?

“Jesus replied, ‘The most important commandment is this: “Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD. And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.” The second is equally important: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” No other commandment is greater than these.’” —Mark 12:29–31 (NLT)
