1. Suzie, tell us what prompted you to write this book.
2. The topic of the Holy Spirit can feel complex. Why is that and how can we understand it better?
3. Jesus described what would happen when he sent the Helper to his first followers. What did he tell them?
4. Many people want to follow Jesus but are afraid of living in surrender to the Holy Spirit. Tell us your own journey of faith and how you came to experience the Holy Spirit's presence.
5. Your journey to a Spirit-led heart has led you into unlikely places like jail and to a rag-picking slum in India. How does a Spirit-led heart change our direction?
6. We know that God wants to be involved in every area of our lives—not just the overtly spiritual moments, but the routine, everyday moments. How can we invite him to meet us in those moments?
7. How can we know if we're hearing from the Holy Spirit? Who or what does He use to speak to us?
8. You write that a Spirit-led heart is bold. Say more about that.
9. What does it mean to be bold without being proud?
10. The Holy Spirit is called our Comforter. Suzie, tell us about a time when you experienced his comforting presence in the midst of a valley.
11. When we walk in the Spirit, he does things in and through us that are totally beyond what we can do on our own. How have you seen these miraculous movements in your own life and ministry?
12. Speak to the person who wants to step out and live with a Spirit-led heart, but is afraid and unsure of how to take that step.
13. The world today is in turmoil and fear, and God calls us to step into that atmosphere with truth, love, and courage. Suzie, how do you pray for the world today?
14. What is your heart's prayer and vision for those who read The Spirit-Led Heart?
