SAMPLE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Touched by Heaven
by Nancy Ravenhill

1. In your book you say that we see Jesus most clearly in the hard times—when we cannot make it unless He helps us. How have your life experiences proved this statement to be true?
2. When did you receive your first divine visit from Jesus? What did He look and sound like? What did you learn about God through each of these visitations?
3. Share about the relationship you had with your father. How did his failed attempts to reach his dreams and aspirations and the tension between him and your mom lead him to take his frustrations out on you?
4. How long did you endure the abuse from your father? How did you find the strength to recover from these traumatic moments?
5. Describe what you saw the night the Lord gave you a glimpse into another realm. Why do you think He allowed you to witness this?
6. Lots of people are asking, “If God is in charge of everything, why does He allow His people to suffer at the hands of evil?” How would you respond?
7. The Bible says that the heroes of the faith “from weakness were made strong” (Hebrews 11:34 ASV). Why do you think the Lord uses our weaknesses to make us stronger?
8. What advice can you give to those who are currently facing extremely difficult situations, such as the ones you faced growing up? Is there hope?
9. How do you pray your book Touched by Heaven will impact those who read it?
