

TellAsia Founder Invites Readers to Live an Adventurous, Power-Filled Faith

Treasures in Dark Places One Woman, a Supernatural God and a Mission to the Toughest Part of India by Leanna Cinquanta

Throughout India, from the beautiful Himalayas to the mighty Ganges River, a soul-stealing spiritual darkness ravages the land. More than 35 million children are orphaned and destitute. Over 25,000 girls are abducted annually for sex trafficking. Dictators and loan sharks force millions into physical slavery, while witch doctors and centuries-old idol worship imprison even more in spiritual bondage.

God's heart breaks for those in darkness—and for the people of India, He called one unlikely young woman to step out in faith and shine His light.

With warmth and disarming honesty, author Leanna Cinquanta shares the rigors, heartaches and miraculous experiences of living hand-in-hand with God, invading the blackness and liberating His treasures. Leanna's account is an amazing, encouraging look at how the supernatural love of Jesus can transform not just one heart, but the hearts of a nation.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Leanna Cinquanta (Ph.D., Regent University) is the founder of TellAsia Ministries and part of an international apostolic team. Through her influence, more than 10,000 churches have been planted in an area that was only 5 percent Christian. When not in India, she travels and speaks publicly, mobilizing others to invade dark places with God's love and liberty.
