1. Tell us a bit about your upbringing and how it prepared you for the work you are doing in India.
2. Leanna, before you encountered Jesus, there were many ways God drew you to Himself. Share some of the ways He revealed His mystery.
3. How did God bring you to India and burden your heart with the impoverished people of that nation?
4. Tell us about the spiritual darkness that exists in that part of the world. What surprised you when you were first exposed to the culture and people?
5. How can we banish fear and step out in faith when God calls us to do something in His name?
6. You experienced a great deal of warfare by following God's call. How do you wage war against the spiritual forces of darkness?
7. You share a story of entering one of India's largest temples in order to confront the demonic forces there. Tell us about that day and what happened.
8. The Ganges region of north India, once termed the "Graveyard of Christianity," is now becoming a mighty harvest field with over 100,000 people turning to Christ annually and thousands of children rescued out of slavery. What was the strategic key you discovered that is enabling this to occur?
9. How is God at work in India, setting captives free? What can we do to oppose darkness and set captives free in our own homes and communities?
