

WHAT'S NONDISABLED PRIVILEGE?

1. Strangers do not typically ask what's wrong with me. YES/NO
2. I can sit with my friends when I attend a concert. YES/NO
3. When I go out to eat, I trust there's a public bathroom I can use. YES/NO
4. I can ride in cars or use public transit without worrying whether or not it will accommodate my body. YES/NO
5. I am protected by minimum wage laws. YES/NO
6. Usually strangers do not mock the way I walk or communicate. YES/NO
7. I can find housing that meets my access needs. YES/NO
8. I am assured there is a plan for my escape in the event of a fire. YES/NO
9. I can get married without worrying about losing my income. YES/NO
10. Strangers do not ask to play with my limbs or accessories. YES/NO

If any of these were true or surprising to you, let that be an invitation to learn more about the experiences of disabled people in public spaces. For more, check out My Body Is Not A Prayer Request: Disability Justice in the Church by Amy Kenny.

