1. This book is a collection of essays, a “journey-together” book for anyone who loves a prodigal. Tell us the story of when God brought a prodigal into your life.
2. After adopting Josh, you arranged the Worldwide Day of Prayer for Josh—now a day of prayer for prodigals. How has the power of prayer impacted your relationship with your son, Josh?
3. You now have a Facebook group with more than 1,600 members called “Prayer for Prodigals.” Tell us about this online community that you’ve built.
4. The primary emphasis in much of the prodigal arena is on tough love. Why is it important for readers to set boundaries with their wayward ones?
5. Why must we know God’s love for us in order to give grace and love to our prodigals?
6. You mention that we cannot change people—only God can change people. Talk through this with us.
7. Ninety days of prayer may seem like a long time for someone who loves a prodigal and wants immediate change. What can you tell readers whose prayers seem to be going unanswered?
8. How is Josh doing now that he is an adult? Did you ever expect to see him where is now?
9. How do you hope this book will impact those who read it?
10. Where can our viewers go to connect with you and learn more about When You Love a Prodigal?
