Soon after writing this book, Pastor Glen Berseau suffered a cardiac arrest in the parking lot outside his church and died. Following the trauma from a lack of oxygen and repeated electric shocks to revive him, his chance of survival was extremely slim. For five days, his family and friends refused the devastating prognosis—and prayed the way he had taught them to pray.

Now, walking out his miracle, Pastor Glen wants to help other believers understand the power we have in the spiritual realm to command mountains to move.

Is it God's will to heal? And is it God's will to heal you? Pastor Glen approaches these questions with compassion, hope and firsthand insight. Countering seventeen hindrances to prayer for healing, he breaks through misunderstanding regarding God's good intentions for His children. Berseau says, "Our faith has the power to move mountains—why settle for less?"

"Berseau offers every believer a compelling and insightful look into the roadblocks to healing. But more importantly, he lifts the veil so we might clearly see our way to receiving our miracle. Spiritually engaging and alive with God's Word and testimony, this is a must read for those who are praying for the hand of God to touch them."

—Marcus D. Lamb, founder and president, Daystar Television Network

"Like an expert physician, Glen Berseau peels back the layers to reveal healing is much more than physical restoration—it's about our relationship with God."

—Rev. Samuel Rodriguez, lead pastor, New Season; president, NHCLC; author, You Are Next!
