1. Glen, you recently suffered a cardiac arrest and died multiple times. Talk with us about this near-death experience and how you've personally received healing.
2. How was your community and family a part of this traumatic experience and your miraculous healing? How do you talk about it with the people around you?
3. Why Am I Not Healed? was written just before your cardiac arrest. Do the words on these pages reflect your real-life experiences?
4. Many people facing health issues are suddenly forced to change their lifestyles. How are these changes a way of God speaking to us?
5. You talk in this book about prophecy. How should we understand and use prophetic words in our lives?
6. Another chapter in your book asks the age-old question, "Why do bad things happen to good people?" Tell us, why do good people still get sick and face disease?
7. What hope can you offer to the person who believes they won't receive healing or that they cannot have a miracle?
8. What is your prayer for the men and women that pick up this book?
