1. What is the greatest fulfillment of biblical prophecy in modern times and the key to spiritual awakening in the Middle East?
2. You state that Israel is the central timepiece concerning the vision for Christ's return. If that is the case, then what is the role the Middle East plays in God's end-time plans and purposes? Why do you emphasize the Middle East and not just Israel in this book?
3. What does it mean when you heard the Holy Spirit say, "The winds are coming"? How does it relate to the teaching in this book?
4. God sent prophetic voices of Christian and Jewish "fishermen" and "hunters" during the first immigration to Israel in 1882. What will these fishermen and hunters look like today? Are they already here?
5. What does the biblical story of Mordecai and Queen Esther teach believers about the roles of modern gatekeepers, intercessors and watchmen?
6. What does the name Jerusalem mean, and how does it foretell the destiny of Israel?
7. Do all the turmoil and present circumstances in Israel indicate that God has rejected His chosen people? In light of that, how should we interpret the times in which we live?
8. In chapter 4, you write, "We must pray for Israel's salvation to go forth like a burning torch." How can we be a part of the global prayer movement for Israel?
9. What do we know of Jesus' return? What is the role of the Church in this end-times harvest, revival and restoration?
