1. Linda, tell us a little bit about your background and what led you to writing The Single Parent.
2. You mention your struggle with accepting your divorce in the introduction of this book. How were you able to use Scripture to find peace in your changed life?
3. How did your relationship with God change through your divorce?
4. Talk with us about the book of Ruth and how this story helped you shape The Single Parent and helped you come to know your church family.
5. You share many other stories of single parents in the Bible throughout your book. How have these passages helped you grow closer to God?
6. What differences did you notice in your relationship with your kids before and after your divorce?
7. In what ways did God use you after you became a single parent?
8. In the book, you discuss the feeling of rejection from the church. When did you realize that despite being divorced, God still wanted you to be a part of the church?
9. How do you see this book empowering single moms and dads to serve our God?
10. Where can our audience go to learn more about you and The Single Parent?
