SAMPLE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Talking with Teens about Sexuality
Critical Conversations about Social Media, Gender Identity, Same-Sex Attraction, Pornography, Purity, Dating, Etc.
by Beth Robinson, EdD, and Latayne C. Scott, PhD

1. Tell us a bit about your background and why you've co-written Talking with Teens about Sexuality.
2. Has the conversation about sexuality between parents and teenagers changed since the “#MeToo movement” started? How so?
3. What are some of the sexuality issues teenagers face today that their parents may not have?
4. When do you think parents should start having conversations about sexuality with their kids?
5. What are some barriers parents may face when talking with their teens about sex?
6. What dangers arise when parents avoid these conversations with their kids?
7. How can parents become a safe space for their children? Why is it important for teens to have a safe place to talk about sexuality?
8. Talk to us about the difference between intimacy in a friendship and sexual intimacy. How might this be confusing to a teenager?
9. Where can parents begin this conversation?
10. Where can our audience go to connect with you and purchase a copy of Talking with Teens about Sexuality?
